- This is a voluntary scheme
 - Did you know that for as little as 80p per week you can donate to any charity of your choice through your wages and your charity will receive a £1 in total due to the tax being given back?
 - There are over 190,000 registered charities to choose from.
 - Over £200 million has been raised within the UK so far, for a wide range of charities throughout the UK.
 - You can cancel this scheme at any time.
 - There is legality in place that the charity may not contact you to ask you to raise your donation or do anything else for them.
 - Nothing starts to come out of your pay for at least 6 weeks until you have received verification from your charity on how your donation will be used.
 - It is not index linked.
 - You can change your charity at any time.
